THE PASSING THERON.

Life is but a journey
Up and down the hills,
Over plains and ridges,
By the laughing rills,
Through the choking darts
And in the valley that
Green and fair and shady
Underneath the sky.
Men are only passers,
None of them may stay,
None of them may linger
Even for a day;
Some of them are weeping,
Some of them are crying,
Here and there is someone
Singing down the way;
Here and there another
Shuffles on the road,
Clinging to his brother,
Adding to his load,
And the rest go mourning
That the scheme is wrong
Since they cannot merely
Sit and slide along.

PUBLIC SPIRIT.

Our Citizens Respond Liberally to a New Industry.

The committee appointed by the Board of Trade to solicit subscriptions to raise the sum of $700 to start a new industry in this city was out Friday afternoon, and is very much pleased with the reception given it by our enterprising citizens. Very few refused, some are considering and others have not yet been seen. The committee feels that each one should consider it a privilege to be able to help this good cause along, and thus give employment to many persons who desire to make an honest living. Let all join heartily in this matter and we cannot fail.

The industry will employ about fifty people with a payroll of about $300 per week to begin with. The business will be enlarged within six months to give work to twice this number.

You give alms when you find worthy objects. You do better than giving alms when you help people to get employment so that they may help themselves.

Do not wait for the committee to call on you. Hunt the committee. Any member of the Board of Trade will take your subscription.

The following persons have made subscriptions. The help of all the citizens is needed to accomplish the desired end:

Cochran Brothers, M. C. Reichstein, Standard Oil Co., Elise Payton, Ohio Valley Poultry Works, Collins & Rudy Lam, William Davis, J. F. Parker, D. H. Rogers, Rossman Bros., Geo. C. Smith, William H. Cox, Metcalfe & Shies, D. Hunt & Son, Frank Owens Hardware & M. L. Kahn, Co., M. C. Barkley & Co., Nesbitt & Co., J. H. Deady, J. W. Fitzgerald, John C. Adams, Geo. C. Smith, Central Hotel Co., Geo. C. Smith, T. J. Wister & Co., K. H. Brown, John Ballenger, J. F. Keckley, C. A. Walker.

There is probably no business more distressing and unprofitable than that of peddling. The cases of years standing of peddling are a constant reminder of the fact that the first application, a little perseverance and the use of the right method will result in a better business. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Circuit Court will begin Monday.

Five or six cases of smallpox have been reported from Russell, Greengrass county.

Official election returns from 105 of the 115 counties of the state have been received at Frankfort.

FACTS AND FICTION.
Experience of Mayville Citizens Are Easily Proven to be Facts—Outline of Testimony is Apt to Savor of Romance.

The most superficial investigation will prove that the following statement from a resident of Mayville is true. Read it and compare evidence from Mayville along with testimony from outside places, published side by side with this in the columns of this paper. Investigate still further and you will be surprised at the number of people in Mayville who echo what this citizen says:

Mr. W. H. Paul of Market street, near Third, says: "I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and one cured me of pains in my back and other evidences of a disordered condition of the kidneys that had given me much trouble for two years or more." This statement of fact is the strongest endorsement Doan's Kidney Pills can have as to their wonderful value.

"A POOR RELATION."

The advisability of securing your seats at once for the extraordinary engagement of Sol Smith Russell's great play, "A Poor Relation," is earnestly recommended to the lovers of clean, wholesome amusements. Frank Keenan, the clever young actor, that Manager Fred O. Berger has engaged to play Mr. Russell's part of Noah Vale, gives an impersonation of the leading character in Mr. Kidder's beautiful comedy that is remarkable for its sincerity, its unstudied pathos and unforced humor. In the company supporting Mr. Keenan this season will be Misses Maud Abbott, Mathilde Worthing, Fannie Barry Sprague, Katherine Dooling and the two children, "Rip" and "Patch," and Messrs. George R. Sprague, George B. Miller, Marcus Moriarty, John Cumberland and Charles Buman. "A Poor Relation" will be given with every attention to details, as new and original scenery, properties and stage settings are carried with the company.

NEWS IN KENTUCKY.

SHOT FROM AMBUSH.

Near Jackson, Joel Tharp Was Fired on While in His Yard Working for Breakfast.

Jackson, Ky., Nov. 17.—Friday morning about daylight Joel Tharp was shot from ambush. He was at his home, about six miles from here, on his horse, and had just come out into his yard to wash for breakfast when he was fired on. The ball struck him in the right shoulder and may prove fatal. It is not known who fired the shot, as it came from the woods near his house. Tharp was fired on by some unknown party about six months ago in the same manner, but escaped being hit. It is also reported that some parties undertook to rob Mr. Bryant Spicer, who lives about eight miles from here on the river. They succeeded in breaking into the house, but Spicer used his shotgun and they left before getting anything. They were tracked four or five miles by bloodhounds, and it is thought Spicer fairly wounded one or more of them. The robbers rode stolen horses to Spicer's home, but they returned there during the night to the place from which they got them, and the saddles were bloody, showing that wounded men rode them.

Her injuries were necessary fatal, but the broken-hearted lovers desired that their betrothed should be dignified before death. ROYAL is the baking powder of general use, its sale exceeding that of all other baking powders combined. Royal Baking Powder has not its counterpart at home or abroad. Its qualities, which make the bread more healthful and the cake of finer appearance and flavor, are peculiar to itself and are not constituent in other leavening agents.

Great efforts are made to sell alum baking powders under the plea that they are so many cents a pound cheaper than Royal. The admission that they are cheaper is an admission that they are inferior. But alum powder contains a corrosive poison and should not be used in food, no matter how cheap.
